NEWS!

WEEK OF:
10/28
through 11/1

This week in Room 22:

This week, students worked on the short e sound. We learned about nouns and sorted them into groups. We finished our discussion of Day of the Dead with a fun art project. We read Pumpkin Jack and talked about what happens to pumpkins after Halloween. We began our study of the pumpkin life cycle in the garden. We finished our first module in math, too.

Next Week:

Students will be taking their end of unit test in math. They will use their reading to discuss different types of buildings, the short u sound, and plural nouns. In social studies, students will begin discussing how things are different in the present compared to the past. We will take a look at how different parts of our lives have changed since long ago.

Reminders:

*Permission slips and library forms were due today. If you have not turned it in yet, please do so as soon as possible.

*Room 22 goes to the school library every Thursday. Students need to return their book on Thursday in order to check out another book.
